

World Population with Region

This data set includes the population of 241 countries including their region as well as percentage of their population compared to the world. In a glance there are 5 regions and both China and India have a total of 35% of world population. Some interesting factors are below

Top 5 countries
Rank	Country	Region	Population	Percentage
1	China	Asia	1411778724	17.80%
2	India	Asia	1386141732	17.50%
3	US	America	332960297	4.20%
4	Indonesia	Asia	271350000	3.43%
5	Pakistan	Asia	225200000	2.83%

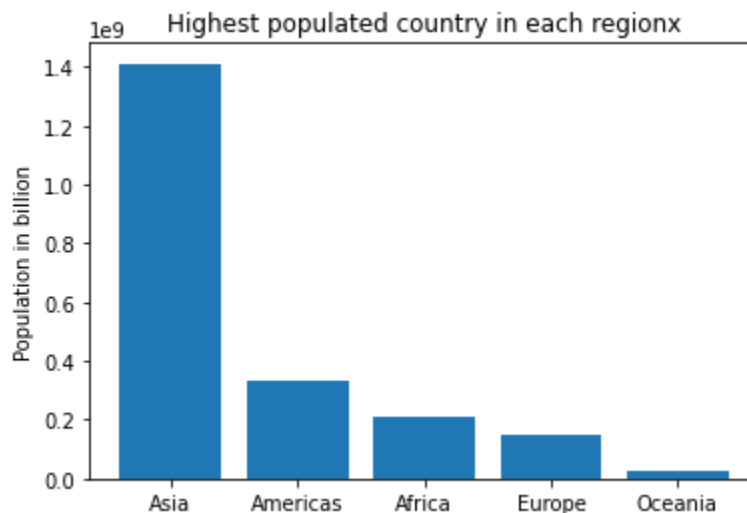

The below chart gives an idea about what we are preceding. Also its the top 5 countries in the world in population. A total of 45.77% of the population in this world is contributed by these 5 countries only.

There are a total of 5 regions: Africa, America, Asia, Europe and Oceania in which the percentage of population is shown with the help of a pie chart. Asia contributes more than half of the total population which is 59.4% followed by America.

By using the bar chart below we can understand which country has the highest population in each region.

From Asia it is China with a population of 1411778724, from Americas it is United States with a population of 332960297, from Africa it is Nigeria with a population of 211401000, from Europe it is Russia with a population of 146171015 and from Oceania it is Australia with a population of 25922849.